Hi! I'm a 24-year-old creative and user-focused designer with a growing passion for blending research-driven insights with storytelling to enhance usability and impact.

Always eager to learn, I embrace every opportunity to apply and refine my skills. While currently working as a Graphic Designer, I am shifting my focus toward digital product design - as reflected in my projects.

Education

Course in UX/UI

EDIT. Disruptive Digital Education

september 2023 - february 2024

Bachelor in Design

University of Aveiro

Experience

Graphic Designer

Freelance

As a freelancer, I have worked on a variety of projects, including graphic materials for social media, editorial design (such as book design), and brand identity. Currently, I am collaborating with M_EIA on the development of a new visual identity for UTA (Universidade Técnica do Atlântico, Cape Verde)

January 2024 - Present

Graphic Designer

INNGAGE | Seixal, Portugal

As part of the communication team at INNGAGE, I primarily designed visual assets for digital campaigns, social media, and marketing materials for partner brands. Additionally, I took on content strategy responsibilities for a few months.

January 2023 - March 2024

Volunteering

Associação Mimi

Senhor do Bonfim – Associação de Solidariedade Social

I led storytelling sessions for elderly at a day center, an experience that reinforced my communication skills and deepened my ability to adapt narratives to different audiences.
